DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER—1892.

MAYSVILLE, KY., FRIDAY, OCTOBER 9, 1903.

ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

POSITIVELY

Copy for "changes" in advertisements MUST be sent in before 2 o'clock on the previous day.

If you have an item of news, please call up The Ledger, Telephone 23, and let us have it.

Miss May Wallace is ill at her home in East Front street.

R. B. Brierly, formerly of Bracken county, died suddenly the first of the week at his home at Winchester.

B. H. Hagins, the step-brother of Curtis Jett, has been arrested in Jackson on the charge of killing Ambrose Fugato.

Rev. John Barbour will deliver a lecture Sunday night on "Shakespeare and the Bible," in response to many requests.

Yesterday E. A. Robinson & Co. received the largest shipment of seed tobacco ever brought to the city at one time—70 cases.

At the last meeting six new applications were filed for membership in the Elks. Now, then, don't stop short of ninety-four more.

Hon. Henry D. Paynter, brother of Judge Thomas H. Paynter, is to stump Greenup county in the interest of the Republican ticket.

Mr. Robert Terbune, whose leg was amputated a week ago as the result of injuries received in a runaway, is reported in a critical condition.

In the Nicholas Circuit Court Omar Gray was convicted of having outraged Bettie Farrow, a deaf mute, and sentenced to ten years in the Pen.

Coincident Harry S. Grimes of Portsmouth was elected President of the Grain Dealers' National Association, in annual convention at Minneapolis, Minn.

The October Communion Service will be held at the Central Presbyterian Church Sunday week. Preparatory services will be announced on Sunday next.

Indiana Tribe No. 21, I. O. R. M., of Minor recently elected J. E. Ernst Sachem, J. W. Ranney Senior Sagamore, R. F. Kirk Junior Sagamore and W. T. Kirk Prophet.

A postal to Mr. J. R. Davis from Galbreath Springs, Tenn., states that Mr. L. W. Galbreath is in a very critical condition, and his physician entertains no hope of his recovery.

Judge Sam Pugh of Vancoburg was in the city yesterday on strictly legal matters. The Judge is the same genial Sam, though he but a private to the rank and not a candidate.

Mr. W. A. Munzing is on the sick list and in the interim Mr. W. H. Daugherty is doing the civility behind the counter at the New Central. William is as faint in handing out smiles and valises.

William Ross had an examining trial before Judge Whitaker yesterday on the charge of attempting to poison his wife and baby and was held over in the sum of $100. He gave bond and was released.

Mr. Burr Marsh, brother of Editor Marsh of The Bulletin, who has been in Colorado for some time for the benefit of his health, has returned to his old home at Charleston Bottom, with no improvement in his condition.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Love of Cincinnati were in the city yesterday en route to West Virginia on a wedding tour. Mr. L. is a member of the firm of Vance & Love, who have the contract for boating the new Elks Home.

Mrs. Frances Beauchamp of Lexington was elected President of the W.C.T.U. at the state meeting at Lancaster. The offices of District Secretaries were abolished, County Presidents taking their places. The next convention will probably be held in Louisville.

On circus day Mr. E. M. Newman borrowed an umbrella from Mrs. Blanchard of the Fifth Ward. He left it at Miss Dalton & Bro.'s Livery Stable, with card of ownership attached. A fellow was seen to tear the card off and carry the umbrella away, and he will save trouble by carrying it back.

Lady's 14k Gold Watch $20; lady's 14k gold filled twenty-five year case $15; a lady's 14k gold filled twenty-year case $10. Boy's Watch, Nickle case, stem wind, $2.50. A Lady's Sterling Silver Watch, Stem Wind, $5. Gents' Watch at same reduction.

MURPHY, the Jeweler.
Money back if not satisfactory.

Mr. Joseph Inskip of Russellville, O., was a victim to the extent of $20 by the light fingered gentry Wednesday. He got on train No. 6 at Ripley, and between that point and this city was relieved of his wealth. It was no trouble for him to replenish his purse in this city, however, as Colonel R. B. Lovel and M. C. Russell Co. buy largely of his products, being the proprietor of a large canning factory in the Ohio town.

Mr. Harry C. Curran will succeed Mr. C. J. Simpson as Manager of the Standard Oil Company's business at this place and at Ewing. Mr. Curran had been an applicant for a place with the Company for some time. The LEDGER, together with his many friends, are gratified at Mr. Curran's selection by the Standard Oil Company. They have chosen wisely and well, as he is well qualified for the place and will look after the Company's affairs here with zeal and integrity. None more worthy could have been chosen. Mr. Simpson, like all faithful fellows, goes up higher, and after the 20th inst. will move to Cincinnati. Charley is genial, capable and deserving, and still higher things are his in years to come.

New Voilings at Mrs. L. V. Davis's.

Rev. and Mrs. C. K. Dickey and daughter leave Dover today for their new home at Pineville.

FOUL MURDER.

Former Maysville Colored Man Killed His Wife at Oberlin, O.

John Bennett, who murdered his wife at Oberlin, O., was born at Washington this county about 25 years ago. His wife, Florence Jackson, was born at Maysville and is about 24 years old.

Both are well known in this city, Florence, the murdered wife, having been a servant for years for Mrs. D. M. Rynnon of Sutton street, and stood well with both white and colored.

Owing to his cruel treatment she was compelled to leave him.

He was here during the Maysville Colored Fair on the hunt of her whereabouts.

At that time she had left Covington and gone to Oberlin where he finally found and murdered her.

The murder was a most diabolical one. With a lump of coal he knocked her senseless and then forced carbolic acid down her throat.

He was arrested and taken to Cleveland, O., to save his worthless flesh from an enraged populace, who would have disposed of him in short order had not the officers of the law protected him.

ENTERPRISING CABMAN.

Mr. Harry L. Walsh Had Unusual Experience on Circus Day.

Circus day Mr. Harry Walsh hired a hack for the afternoon for the accommodation of his family in taking them to and from the circus.

After arriving at the grounds he left the vehicle in charge of a boy and wended his way into the show.

He had not been gone long before a hairy darkey came along and haled the boy get down off the box, which he immediately mounted and started in business on stolen capital, as it were.

He did a thriving business for a time in hauling passengers, but his greediness was his own downfall. Had he been content with a reasonable sum and quit at the proper time all would have been well, but alas for the poor darkey, he tarried too long at the well and the golden pitcher was broken.

Just as the rain was about to fall Mr. Walsh appeared and much to his surprise his hack was "non est inventus," or somewhere else.

While thus bewildered as to what become of it and what to do to protect his family from the rain-storm fast approaching, up drove the embryo buckman, who had been to town with a load of passengers.

For a while the atmosphere—notwithstanding the lowering elements—was in a manner blue from the benediction Mr. Walsh gave the darkey. After making him disgorge all his ill-gotten gains and giving him several raps with a cane he held in his hand, he let him go, being mollified with the satisfaction of getting the hack in time to save his family from the storm then upon them.

Across the River

Help to hoist your town.

Our rivermen wore all overcrowded with business Wednesday.

C. B. Campbell is employed as carpenter on the Maysville ice piers.

W. A. Rist is at Georgetown attending a meeting of the Commissioners.

Miss Steele, teacher of the Narrows School, is in the Kentucky Fair.

Rev. Gray of Maysville has been holding meetings at the Baptist Church this week.

Miss Cora Fulton had the misfortune to lose her pocket-book in Maysville Wednesday.

Rev. H. O. Collins, the now Pastor of the M. E. Church, filled his appointment Sunday night.

There were more vehicles in town circus day than ever before at one time in the history of the town.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Helmer will go to housekeeping in the cottage owned by J. Frank Ellis in East Second street.

The ferry Laurance carried 1,300 people from this side of the river to Maysville Wednesday to witness the big parade.

Quite a number of out of town people who had been attending the show were detained in Aberdeen over night on account of the inclement weather.

Mr. Henney and family, who have been visiting the family of G.W. Brookover, have returned to their home in North Liberty, O. They may become residents of Aberdeen in the near future.

Mr. Walter Early, one of the Commissioners of Adams county, died suddenly at an early hour Thursday morning. He attended the circus Wednesday and was in Aberdeen until 8 o'clock Wednesday night.

He Learned a Great Truth.
It is said of John Wesley that he once said to Mistress Wesley: "Why do you tell that child the same thing over and over again?" John Wesley, because once telling is not enough." It is for this reason that you are told again and again that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy cures colds and grippe; that it counteracts any tendency of these diseases to result in pneumonia, and that it is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by Jas. Wood & Son.

Cartmell extracts teeth without pain.

Evangelist George O. Barnes is now engaged in a meeting at Manchester.

Matinee price for Lizzie Evans in "At Cozy Corners" Saturday will be 15 cents for children and 25 and 35 cents for adults. Tickets can be obtained at Ray's Drugstore Saturday morning.

Mr. Thomas E. Barnes, one of Winchester's most popular and prospering young business men, and Miss Lillie Bell Heflin, daughter of Mr. James H. Heflin, wealthy merchant of Tilton, will wed at the home of Miss Heflin's parents Tuesday, October 20th.

Never compare prices without comparing quality; you will find more difference in quality than you will in price. See our announcements and markers before buying elsewhere.

MURRAY & THOMAS.

ODDFELLOWS NOTICE.

The Rev. W. G. McCready will deliver a sermon to the Oddfellows of this city Sunday evening at 7 o'clock, October 11th, in the Church of Nativity. Members of DeKalb, Ringgold and Friendship Lodges will meet in their Hall at 6:30 and all go in a body.

For yourself or boy you naturally want the best for the least money. The best goods are always the cheapest, and as we buy and carry in stock more clothing than all the other stores in Maysville combined, our large purchases give us advantages that enable us to give you the best of merchandise at no bigger cost than you would probably pay for lower graded clothes elsewhere.

A word about the "fits" we give you: Perfect fitting garments are desired by everyone, whether he pays $10 or $25 for a Suit or Overcoat. Now, "there" is a thing we are more particular about than the majority of our customers. We just WON'T let a garment go out of our house unless we are pleased. See them. We want you to take a glance at the Stein-Bloch Cravette Coat specially made for us. People who know say it's the handsomest garment they ever looked at. This coat is used both for Overcoat and Raincoat.

If you are going to hunt this season buy a pair of our Millford High Top Shoes. They are strictly (guaranteed) water proof. They sell everywhere for $6; we sell ours for $5.

THE HOME STORE. D. HECHINGER & CO.

Millinery Announcement

Tomorrow's one word is COME. An imposing assemblage of hats and bonnets will greet you on our second floor. Rich purples, gorgeous reds and resplendent greens for some, black, gun metal, navy and mode for others. Something to please everybody. Dress hats, tailor hats, the simplest of ready-to-wear and children's hats you'll find in pleasing variety. You will not be disappointed in style, variety or price. COME.

D. HUNT & SON.

Mr. Frank M. Lunsford of Dover sold three suckling mules to Wood Bros. of this city for $125.

Rev. J. S. Young of this city has been selected by officers of the M. E. City Missionary Society as the new Pastor of McMicken Avenue M. E. Church, Cincinnati.

Let every Elk who is interested in the proposed "Home" be present at next Wednesday night's meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel J. Pugh have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Miss Beulah Louise, to Rev. Davis Mosley Walker, which will occur Wednesday, October 14th, at 8 p. m., at Vanceburg.

Steve Vaught of Danville, formerly of Maysville, who is now in camp at West Point with the Kentucky State Guard, wears the honors of Orderly and Regimental Sergeant Major for Lieutenant Colonel Morrow.

$100 Reward—$100.
The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address, F. J. CHENNY & CO., Toledo, O., sold by Druggists, 75c.

If the Best Shoe Stock
in Maysville

Will prove any inducement for you to buy here, then we are assured of a fine trade this fall and winter. You won't find such goods as we offer in every stock in town. Full line of Fetterall, Barker & Brown's solid leather Brogans, acknowledged to be the most serviceable work shoe made. Good, heavy Boots and first class RUBBERS.

BARKLEY'S!

The Question

Now is, Who Can Help You Most With Your Fall Shopping?

The answer is partly told in this advertisement, but fully told by a visit to the store. Today's talk will be on ready-made goods, and this department we are especially proud of, for we believe that there are few stores that show and sell the amount of ready-made goods that we do. (Of course we mean towns the size of Maysville.)

LADIES' SUITS.

We are told daily that the best line of Suits in town is here, and at the rate we are selling them there is no doubt of it. Suits from $10 up, but we are selling more from $15 to $35.

CLOAKS.

From the one-day-old to the any age, and while the weather is warm of course you don't feel like buying, but did you know that the best choice is the early one. Almost a thousand garments to select from, and where in Northern Kentucky can you get such a selection? Come and look, even if you are not ready.

MUSLIN UNDERWEAR.

We fit up most of the brides from the five counties around us. Who is more particular than a bride? The best of undergarments are had here and fair prices rule.

SHIRTWAISTS.

In this line even our competitors admit we are supreme. "The Royal," the Queen of the land; the best stores in every town carry it. Prices $1.49 and up.

WRAPPERS and DRESSING SACKS.

A little department by itself, but hardly an hour passes in the day that some lady isn't made happy by the provision we have made for her home comfort. 79c up, and all cut full.

HATS.

Trimmed and ready-to-wear. For the very highest price hats you must go to the millinery store—we are only after the lady that cares to save a few dollars on a hat. $10 Hats for $5, and we please you at the start—no coming back to see if it fits.

The man who wants anything else than an absolutely honest election and a fair count is a bad citizen.

The date has not been set for laying the corner-stone of Maysville's Public Building—to be erected somewhere this side of the Fair-grounds.

The local Republicans have done quite well in the registration of voters. Now let them see that every voter votes, and that the votes are counted as they are voted.

UNCLE SAM could put up a good Public Building with the money it takes to coach 10,256 soldiers in the art of war at the West Point maneuver grounds. Before the shouting and the tumult has died, the Krags silenced and the last soldier boy is back at home telling about the long "hikes," there will be bills amounting to not less than $285,000 to foot. Not more than $3,000 of this would be needed to maintain the 2,700 regulars for three weeks at their posts.

SUNDAY-SCHOOL CONVENTION.

The District Convention of the Fourth Magisterial District will be held at Hebron Church, near Germantown, on Sunday, October 13th, at 2 p.m. Good music and short spicy talks will be the order of the day.

The Convention of the Third Magisterial District will be held in Dover Sunday, October 18th, at 2 p.m.

The County Convention of the Mason County Branch of the Kentucky Sunday-school Association will be held in the Christian Church in this city Saturday and Sunday, November 7th and 8th.

It is requested that Sunday, October 25th, be observed by all the Churches in Mason county as Sunday-school "Rally Day." See how many new scholars can be brought in on that day. The Pastors and Superintendents are requested to report the results. On this day select your delegates to the County Convention. One delegate from each school.

JOHN DULEY, County President.

Be Good—It Pays. A Chicago man has observed that "Good deeds are better than real estate deeds—some of the latter are worthless. Act kindly and gently, show sympathy and lend a helping hand. You cannot possibly lose by it." Most men appreciate a kind word and encouragement more than substantial gifts. There are persons in this community who might truthfully say: "My good friend, cheer up. A few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will cure you of your cold, and there is no danger whatever from pneumonia when you use that medicine. It always cures. I know it, for it has helped me many a time." Sold by J. Jas. Wood & Son.

The Republicans bear the burden of taxation equally with the Democrats, and they have an equal right to have their votes counted in registering their choice of officials.

GOV. BRADLEY'S CALL TO DUTY.

Chairman John C. Wood of the Republican Speakers' Bureau has received the following letter from former Governor Bradley:

Louisville, Ky., October 2d, 1903.

Hon. John C. Wood, Chairman Speakers' Bureau—Sir: Had my health justified I would have spoken for the Republican party before this, and shall certainly speak as soon as able.

The best interest of the state requires the election of the Republican ticket, and I trust that no man will be found who is not willing to do his duty.

I hope that no effort will be spared to register the vote in the cities and towns of the Commonwealth, as this is the foundation of success, and in the absence of a full and proper registration we cannot hope to win. Your friend,

W. O. BRADLEY.

BLACKBURN'S BELLOWINGS.

Louisville Evening Post.

"I charge here and now," cries the valiant Blackburn, "that Colonel Belknap was first compelled to promise, and did promise, the friends of Taylor, Finley, Howard and Powers that he would pardon those convicted assassins of your Governor Goebel." Senator Goebel was never Governor. Taylor and Finley have never been convicted of assassinating anybody. Colonel Belknap never made such a promise. The blatant orator who indulges in this talk lost his soul four years ago when he bet it against a counterfeit nickel that if the Republicans were victorious the Goebel Law, being such a good robbing device, would not be repealed.

Public Ledger

WEEKLY REPUBLICAN—1867.
DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER—1889.

MAYSVILLE, KY., FRIDAY, OCTOBER 9, 1903.

ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

According to his counter register J. P. Wailaco, proprietor of the Manhattan Restaurant, served 1,994 customers Wednesday.

Mrs. Henry Paxton, nee Saunders, died a few days ago at Marion, Ind., and her remains were brought to Flemingsburg her former home, for interment.

Donald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wood, is getting along nicely, but his brother Clarence is not doing so well. They are down with the scrofulous fever.

Mr. C. T. Biggers of near Dover has this son taken nearly 6,000 pounds of honey from the bees he owns, a large part of which he shipped to the Cincinnati market.

Yesterday a paper was produced in Court purporting to be the last will and testament of Mrs. Mary Smith, deceased, and the same was ordered recorded as such. She leaves all her possessions to her daughter, Miss Belle Smith.

The wedding of Miss Mary Davison and Mr. John C. Hermann was an elegant affair at the First Presbyterian Church at Covington Wednesday evening. Mr. Reed Stockton was present at the nuptials.

Carlisle Commandery, U. D., will confer the Order of Knighthood on a class of nine on October 16th, beginning at 2 p.m. An invitation has been extended to Maysville Commandery No. 10, K. T., to bring their team and participate in the conferring of the Orders. After the work an elegant banquet will be given.

It is reported at Ashland that the Chesapeake and Ohio, the C. H. & D. and the Detroit Southern are seeking to control the Ashland Coal and Iron Company, which owns twenty-two miles of railroad and 23,000 acres of rich coal lands in Boyd County. Quite a number of the stockholders are Cincinnati people.

It is said the brothers and sisters of the late Thornton Norris of near Germantown will bring suit to break his will. Mr. Norris bequeathed all of his estate, valued at probably $60,000 to $75,000, to his wife, a young woman who he married several years ago, and had previously deeded her a farm of 335 acres near Germantown.

Mr. James B. Heathman, whose home is at Lexington, now employed by E. N. Forsyth of this city as teamster, was kicked this morning by a horse while engaged in cleaning him. He was struck in the side and on the leg, the one in the side causing a rupture, besides being pressed against the side of the stall by the horse. He is painfully and seriously hurt. Dr. A. G. Browning is attending the injured man.

In 1901 the number of indictable offenses committed in Ireland was 9,003, but in 1902 they sank to 8,736.

As the result of the efforts of London dock and shipping companies, 89,811 rats were killed in the port of London in 1902.

Captain Cyrus S. Radford of Kentucky has been promoted to be Major and detailed as Assistant Quartermaster in the Marine Corps.

The property at Tappan, N. Y., where Major Andre was executed as a spy, has been bought in by the county, the owners refusing to pay taxes on it.

It is estimated by the Treasury Department that the exports of the United States for the current year will reach the great total of $1,500,000. The imports will be about $1,000,000, half of it raw material for manufacturers.

The mines of the Black Hill District, South Dakota, for the year just closed, produced $8,362,392, which is nearly $1,000,000 increase over the previous year. The average value of the ore handled in the district per ton was $4.44.

The State Department has been informed that China will not consent to any terms proposed by Russia for a postponement of the evacuation of Manchuria which might be injurious to the rights of China or any other Nation.

It is accepted in Washington that the opposition to an extra session of Congress in November will not cause the President to alter his determination to issue such a call. It is also believed that Cuban reciprocity and not financial legislation will be the main feature.

The report of United States Treasurer Ellis H. Roberts for the fiscal year ended June 30th, 1903, shows that the total net revenues for the year were $560,396,674, an increase of $38,988,439 over the year preceding. The total expenditures were $506,009,007, an increase of $35,782,084. The surplus was $54,297,667, as compared with $91,287,375 in 1902.

A statement issued by the United States Geological Survey shows that for the first time in the history of the United States the production of coal has reached a total of over 300,000,000 short tons, the actual output being 300,930,659 tons, valued at $373,133,843. The production in Kentucky in 1902 showed an increase over 1901 of 1,193,176 short tons or a little over 20 per cent.

A Perfect Painless Pill
Is the one that will cleanse the system, set the liver to action, remove the bile, clear the complexion, cure headache and leave a good taste in the mouth. The famous little pills for doing such work pleasantly and effectively are DeWitt's Little Early Riser. Bob Moore of Lafayette, Ind., says: "All other pills I have used gripe and sicken, while DeWitt's Little Early Riser are simply perfect." Sold by J. Jas. Wood & Son, Druggists.

ONE GREAT BREATHITT

Will Be the State of Kentucky If Beckham Is Re-Elected.
(Louisville Herald.)

There passed through Louisville on Tuesday evening J. L. Napier, of Clayhole, Breathitt county, with his wife and child on their way to Oklahoma, fugitives from the terrorism still prevalent in Breathitt. That assassination has not been eradicated from that ill-fated district by the Beckamites pretense of enforcing the law is very clear from Napier's enforced flight, because he had fallen under the ban of the rule of blood and terror.

We take his statements from the morning Democratic organ. On Tuesday night last Napier said to a representative of that paper:

"Last Wednesday I was in the store sorting mail, when a man came into the store and lounged around there for half an hour. I was busy opening the mail, and when I came to the registered letters he drew a 45 Colt and told me to hand over that mail. As he said that he fired and ran. The bullet did not come close to me, but it was aimed at me. There were a lot of people in the store at the time, and they all ran as soon as they saw the big gun."

This occurred at Clayhole, ten miles from Jackson, where Napier was postmaster and storekeeper. The next day he went to Jackson and asked for a warrant. "I went," he says, "before Judge Hargis and swore to an affidavit, but he did not issue the warrant."

Napier significantly adds:

"There is no law in Breathitt. Warrants cannot be secured unless the man who wants the warrant is on the right side. There are seven magistrates in the county, and six of them do the bidding of one of the leaders. I do not know the seventh, as he lives in the far end of the county, so I don't know how he stands. Jackson is quiet until the man they want gets there, then there is the crack of a rifle, and he is dead. Jackson is quieter than the rest of the county, but it is all under one man's thumb. He boasts that he is ruler in Breathitt county."

The plain truth is that the Breathitt leaders understand Beckham. Governor Beckham has frequently, for reasons of political gain and of political reward, issued pardons. He has done so at the instance of the leaders. He will, if elected, do it again. Breathitt will, by a large majority, vote for Beckham. He must, according to politicians and to Beckham precedents, in plenty return political favors with prerogative favors. There can be no return of security to Breathitt so long as Beckham is governor of Kentucky.

His re-election in November would precipitate outbursts of lawlessness. The parole and pardon brokers would turn loose on the state everywhere the very class of men that has made it impossible for any but those willing to accept tyranny to live in Breathitt.

We have quoted these sections of the constitution in order to recall to the people of Kentucky the spirit of that instrument. The people sought to destroy the possibility of the erection within the state of an officeholding oligarchy, of an officeholders' trust, such as has been established at Frankfort, and such as has been established in the city of Louisville. This trust is built up by the patronage of public office. Power once secured is never surrendered without a protest. The people recognized the evils that inevitably follow the attempt of ambitious men to perpetuate themselves in office, and they wrote this prohibition in the constitution as broad as possible.

And yet the politicians of the state, directing and controlling the Democratic organization, defy the constitution, override its prohibitions, evade the letter where they can not openly violate it, and, in spite of the constitution, use the patronage of one term of office to secure another term of office.

It is contended in behalf of the governor that, strictly interpreted, the prohibition does not apply to an officer serving out the unexpired term of his predecessor. This, we believe, is the strict interpretation of the letter of the constitution, but in the case of Governor Beckham it is to be considered that he has served nearly four years. He was given the office of lieutenant governor by proceedings revolutionary in their character and revolutionary in their effect. Defeated by the people, the Democratic caucus made him lieutenant governor. When Mr. Goebel was assassinated he at once succeeded to Mr. Goebel and became governor. In November, 1900, he was nominated by the Democratic party in spite of the Courier-Journal's "demand for a man" which was intended to set aside Mr. Beckham and, under the forms of law, he was elected to serve out the term of three years.

Manifestly, the spirit of the constitution is just as much violated when Mr. Beckham is a candidate for governor as it would have been violated had Governor Bradley been nominated by the Republicans in 1899.

It is hardly worth while to argue this proposition. It is not a question of the strict interpretation of the forms of the constitution. It is a question merely of the purpose of the constitution, and it is violated, not only in the nomination of Mr. Beckham, but the spirit of it is violated, moreover, in nominating Mr. McChesney, now superintendent of public instruction, for secretary of state; in nominating Mr. Haager, now secretary of state, for auditor. Mr. Vreeland, who is assistant in the office of the commissioner of agriculture, becomes the party candidate for commissioner of agriculture to succeed Mr. Nail.

Of course if the people of Kentucky are satisfied with this arrangement, they will vote for these candidates. A vote for these candidates is a vote temporarily to suspend the prohibitions of the constitution. It is a vote to sustain the belief that the officeholding trust at Frankfort is made up of men of such superior attainments, such breadth of mind, such statesmanship, that the state can not afford to do without their services.

There are some remarkable exhibitions of family division in Democratic circles. W. C. McChord is district attorney for a railroad, John McChord is a local attorney and Dr. McChord is surgeon for one of those "awful octopuses," while Charley McChord, the wise-eyed and rubber-heeled statesman from Springfield, just naturally has no use for a railroad, except to ride on. He stands like a bouncing lion in the pathway of any old octopus that attempts to encroach upon the preserves of the great common people, even if he has to go all the way to New York to head it off.

Notwithstanding all the criticism heaped upon the inside and outside hairless head of the Hon. Holley James, it must be admitted that he is a man of parts.

NO CONSTITUTIONAL SECOND TERM.

The whole spirit of the constitution of the state of Kentucky is a spirit of prohibition of a second term for public office. It is the old spirit, the old Democratic demand for rotation in office, that has controlled the formation of the present constitution of the state of Kentucky, this spirit also largely controlling the constitution of 1849. Section 93 of the present constitution of the state of Kentucky reads as follows:

"The Treasurer, Auditor of Public Accounts, Secretary of State, Commissioner of Agriculture, Labor and Statistics, Attorney General, Superintendent of Public Instruction and Register of the Land Office, shall be ineligible to re-election for the succeeding four years after the expiration of the term for which they shall have been elected."

This is a very sweeping prohibition, and the principle of it is to be noted in other sections of the constitution. For instance, section 71 refers to the governor, and declares:

"He shall be ineligible for the succeeding four years after the expiration of the term for which he shall have been elected."

Section 82 provides for a lieutenant governor who shall possess the same qualifications as the governor, and contains this clause:

"He shall be ineligible to the office of lieutenant governor for the succeeding four years after the expiration of the term for which he shall have been elected."

It is provided in section 160, relating to municipal officers, that "No mayor or chief executive or fiscal officer of any city of the first or second class, after the expiration of the term of office to which he has been elected under this constitution, shall be eligible for the succeeding term."

We have quoted these sections of the constitution in order to recall to the people of Kentucky the spirit of that instrument. The people sought to destroy the possibility of the erection within the state of an officeholding oligarchy, of an officeholders' trust, such as has been established at Frankfort, and such as has been established in the city of Louisville. This trust is built up by the patronage of public office. Power once secured is never surrendered without a protest. The people recognized the evils that inevitably follow the attempt of ambitious men to perpetuate themselves in office, and they wrote this prohibition in the constitution as broad as possible.

Gained Forty Pounds in Thirty Days.

For several months our younger brother had been troubled with indigestion. He tried several remedies, but got no benefit from them. We purchased some of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and he commenced taking them. Inside of thirty days he had gained forty pounds in flesh. He is now fully recovered. We have a good trade on the Tablets.—Holley Bros., Merchants, Long Branch, Mo. For sale by J. Jas. Wood & Son.

River News

The guage reads 3.8 at this point and falling.

There is a slight rise reported from headwaters.

The Jutte Coal Company will probably purchase the Government towboat Minnetonka.

The rains will have some effect on the Ohio, as there was a heavy downpour all over the state.

The Lizzie Bay and the Vincennes are the only White Collar Line steamers that are running, they going up as far as Manchester.

The big Alice Brown, in command of Captain John Klem, at West Louisville, is having cylinders re-cut, besides receiving a general overhauling.

The last fleet of coal ever held at Cincinnati is at Mill Creek coal harbor. Over 100 loaded boats and 30 barges are there ready to go South on the first big rise.

An effort is said to be on to settle the claims against the towboat W. H. Flint and prevent the sale of the boat at Pittsburgh by the United States Marshal, Stephen P. Stone.

All steamboat Mates must renew their licenses before November 1st. Many of them carry five-year licenses, which expire this month, and they must receive new certificates.

According to the report of United States Inspector Lloyd, from May 24 until August, 121,753 people were carried out of Cincinnati, while the Coney Island boats handled 397,974 people.

The little steamboat San Salvador was built at the yards of C. P. Willard & Co., Michigan, and taken down to New Orleans via Chicago canal and Illinois and Mississippi rivers. She passed down October 3d, with parting salutes from various harbor crafts having on board Captain John Chapman, with a crew of ten men, a long voyage of 3,400 miles to Maranda, Brazil.

When the big coal fleets come South this fall they will apparently be in charge of new boats, but this is not the case, for it is only the result of repair work and extensive painting which has been going on all summer on all the big boats of the combine. Never before has there been so much work done, or have the boats been better prepared to handle the immense amount of coal which will go South this fall.

The exact location of the Cullom's Rifle Dam in the Ohio river will be at the Gaff farm near Fernbank. The strip includes some 28 acres, with a good river front. Preliminary plans for the construction of the Dam have already been considered by Government engineers, and it is estimated that $3,000,000 will be spent on the Dam. The structure, when completed, will give a nine-foot stage of water for a distance of 25 miles up the Ohio river the year round, making navigation possible throughout the period of low water stages.

If the indications promising high water in the Ohio river hold good, 60,000 tons of steel rails will start from Bessemer by river in a few days on the way to the Gulf. The shipment is now loading on seventy barges. Much of this steel is for relaying track on the Southern Pacific Railroad. Some is bound for Mexico and a portion is shipped on European orders for foreign countries. The fleet will go to New Orleans, where trans-shipments will be made. On the same stage of water another flotilla carrying 175,000 tons of iron cotton will go to New Orleans, this material being prepared for the Gulf demand for next season's cotton crop.
